

History of St. Joseph Parish continued.

1925 – 2003

Rosalyn Quinn, Office Administrator

Fortunately, in his last year, Father Connelly was served by Roselyn Quinn, who remained as Office Manager for thirteen years. She is described as being “the spirit of the church,” and as a “blue-eyed, white-haired, whirlwind of a lady. Mrs. Quinn supervised the operations of a clerical staff and coordinated the activities of some thirty parish ministries. She not only managed the office for Fathers Connelly and Smith but she was a special minister to the sick, a member of the Cantabile Choir, and a member of the St. Joseph Guild. She had also trained in the diocesan program for Pastoral Ministry. She died in 1982 shortly after her husband, Byron, who had also been actively involved in parish ministries.